If your answer is yes, we will send you information on how to comply with California State Board of Equalization requirements.

OR

2. OCCASIONAL SELLERS

Occasional sellers are individuals who are not required to hold a California Seller's Permit because they will not be making a series of qualifying sales. For example, a person who is selling used trains accumulated for their own use and who sells only those items will usually qualify as an occasional seller, providing they make sales no more than twice in a 12-month period.

If you are an "occasional seller" you must enter your driver's license number.
